

Story of SJHS

The hallways display the fun atmosphere and school spirit of St.
Joe

This picture shows students buying their lunch

A poster in the hallway that represents a goal of the teachers who want their students to succeed

St. Joe is a very religious community. We spend a lot of time going to mass and praying

This picture shows the garden that was planted in memory of Mr Henshaw

This displays some of the departments held in the red brick building

The red brick building; this is where some of our classes are held

St. Joe takes much pride in their football team

Friends enjoy sitting at the lunch table and socializing

Sports are a huge part of St. Joe. These are some of the championship basketballs put on display in the hallway
